Awareness Program on Share Market for Students

Date: September 26, 2023

Time: 10:00 AM

Venue: Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo, Dist. Wardha

Objective:

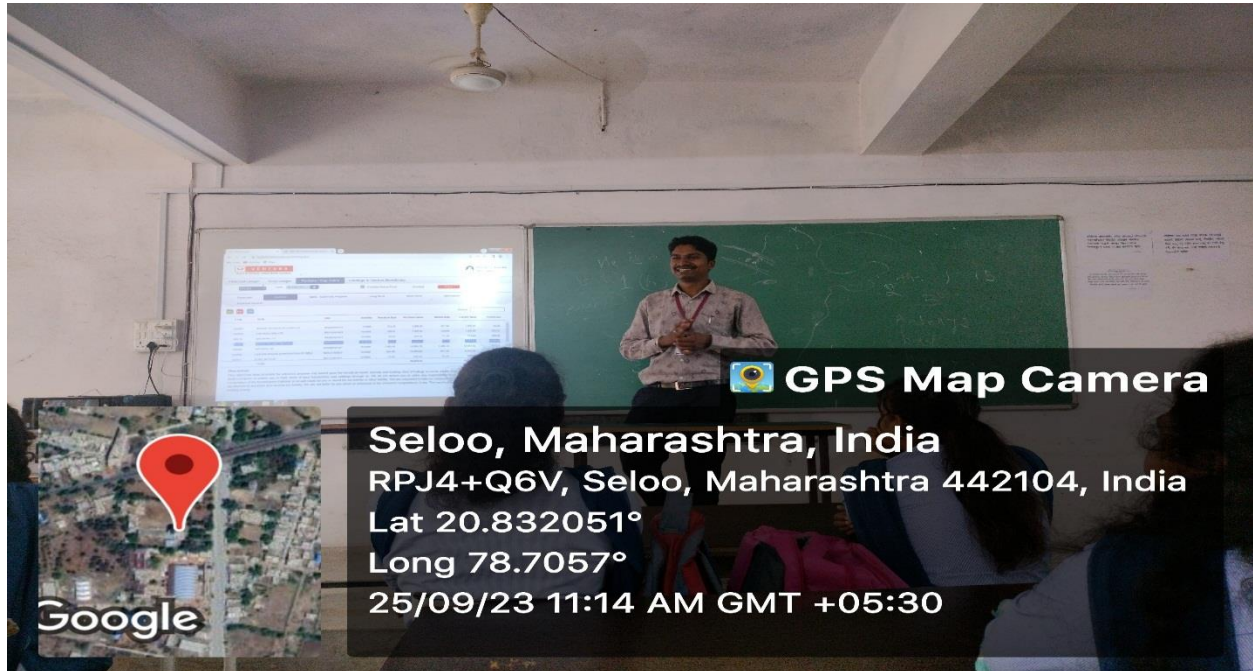

The primary objective of the Awareness Program on Share Market for Students of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo was to impart valuable knowledge and insights into the world of stock markets, mutual funds, and related financial instruments. The program aimed to equip students with a fundamental understanding of investment opportunities, risk management, and financial planning. The specific objectives included:

- Introduction to Stock Market: To provide students with a basic understanding of what the stock market is, how it functions, and its role in the economy.
- Mutual Funds: To educate students about mutual funds, their types, benefits, and how they work as an investment vehicle.
- Risk Management: To help students comprehend the concept of risk in investing and various strategies to mitigate it.
- Financial Planning: To emphasize the importance of financial planning, setting financial goals, and making informed investment decisions.

Key Speaker:

We were honored to have Mr. Mahesh Kombe as the Key Speaker for the event. Mr. Kombe is an esteemed Assistant Professor known for his expertise in finance and investment. He delivered an enlightening talk covering various aspects of the stock market, mutual funds, and more. His insightful presentation was instrumental in achieving our program's objectives.

Program Highlights:

- Welcome Address: The program began with a warm welcome address, highlighting the significance of financial literacy and the role it plays in shaping students' financial futures.
- Keynote Presentation: Mr. Mahesh Kombe delivered an engaging and informative keynote presentation. He elucidated the fundamentals of the stock market, demystified the complexities of mutual funds, and shared practical tips on building a diversified investment portfolio.
- Interactive Q&A Session: Following the presentation, students had the opportunity to ask questions and seek clarifications. This interactive session encouraged active participation and facilitated a deeper understanding of the topics discussed.
- Resource Materials: Participants were provided with resource materials, including brochures, books, and online resources, to further their knowledge in the field of finance and investment.
- Closing Remarks: The program concluded with closing remarks, thanking Mr. Kombe for his valuable insights and encouraging students to continue their journey of financial education.

Feedback and Future Initiatives:

Feedback from the students indicated a positive response to the program. Many expressed their newfound interest in finance and investment. Encouraged by this, we plan to organize more such awareness programs, workshops, and seminars to enhance financial literacy among students.

In conclusion, the Awareness Program on Share Market for Students was a resounding success in achieving its objectives of promoting financial literacy. We extend our gratitude to Mr. Mahesh Kombe for his valuable contribution, and we look forward to further empowering our students with knowledge and skills to navigate the world of finance.

Sincerely,
