

Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo

Report on International Entrepreneurship Day Program

Date: 21/08/2023 | Time: 9:00 AM | Venue: Late Shri. Bapuraoji Deshmukh Memorial Hall.

The International Entrepreneurship Day program held at Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo, was an inspiring event that showcased the experiences and successes of former students and alumni who have ventured into various entrepreneurial endeavors. The event took place on August 21, 2023, and saw an enthusiastic participation of over 65 students and the esteemed presence of teachers.

The program featured an array of accomplished former students and alumni who shared their remarkable journey in entrepreneurship, providing valuable insights and motivation for the students in attendance. The event commenced at 9:00 AM at Late Shri. Bapuraoji Deshmukh Memorial Hall.

Guest Speakers:

The heart of the program lay in the enlightening talks delivered by a diverse panel of guest speakers. These speakers, hailing from various backgrounds and industries, shared their entrepreneurial journeys, experiences, and insights. Their valuable contributions were instrumental in making the event a resounding success. Here is a more detailed look at some of the guest speakers:

1. Amol Kudamthe: Mr. Kudamthe, a Police Patil from Kotamba, shared his experiences in maintaining law and order in his village.
2. Shubham Udan: As the Sarpanch of Ghodeghat, Mr. Udan discussed the challenges and opportunities in rural governance.
3. Anup Gudwar: Mr. Gudwar, an Agricultural Servant from Rehki, shared insights into modern farming practices.
4. Suraj Kadukar: Specializing in Furniture Making and Marketing in Seloo, Mr. Kadukar offered valuable advice for budding entrepreneurs in the furniture industry.
5. Pravin Thakare: Mr. Thakare, involved in the Disposal Making Business in Rehki, shared his entrepreneurial journey and contact details for those interested: 9960485723.
6. Chandan Shende: Operating a Betel Nut Cutting and Selling Business in Seloo, Mr. Shende provided insights into this niche market.
7. Darshan Dhabale: Mr. Dhabale, dealing with C, R, P.F. Cobra, presented his experiences in his unique field of work and shared his contact number, 8408910722.
8. Amol Kodape: Representing the Wardha Police, Mr. Kodape discussed community safety and his role.
9. Ashish Kalbande: With experience in the Railway sector in Seloo, Mr. Kalbande discussed opportunities within this industry. His contact number, 7709687088, was provided for inquiries.
10. Mangesh Pohane: Mr. Pohane, serving as a Home Guard in Selu and excelling as a Progressive Farmer, offered insights into farming practices.
11. Suraj Khodke: Representing an Agricultural Centre in Seloo, Mr. Khodke discussed agricultural advancements and provided his contact number, 9595358889.
12. Pradeep Mude: As a Progressive Farmer, Mr. Mude discussed sustainable agriculture and could be reached at 8007293048.
13. Kiran Mujbaile: Mr. Mujbaile, another Progressive Farmer, might have contributed insights into modern farming practices.

The event provided a platform for these accomplished individuals to share their experiences, challenges, and successes in their respective entrepreneurial ventures. Their stories resonated deeply with the attendees, inspiring them to consider diverse paths in entrepreneurship. The event facilitated an open dialogue, allowing students to interact with the speakers and gain valuable insights into the entrepreneurial world.

The event was graced by the presence of distinguished individuals on the dais who played pivotal roles in its success. Dr. Sandip B. Kale, the Principal of Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, and Mr. Arjun N. Khobragade, the IQAC Coordinator, were present of the occasion. The program was expertly anchored by Dr. Archana Dahane, who ensured that the event flowed smoothly and kept the audience engaged. The vote of thanks was conveyed by Prof. Deshmukh Madam, who expressed gratitude to all participants and attendees for their valuable contributions.

The presence of enthusiastic students, supportive teachers, and accomplished alumni made the International Entrepreneurship Day program a resounding success. The event not only celebrated the achievements of former students but also ignited a spark of ambition and innovation among the current students, encouraging them to explore their potential in the entrepreneurial landscape.

The Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya community expresses its gratitude to all the guest speakers for sharing their time, experiences, and wisdom. The event was a testament to the college's commitment to fostering entrepreneurial spirit and creating a platform for meaningful interactions between successful alumni and aspiring students. Overall, the International Entrepreneurship Day program was a remarkable occasion that left a lasting impact on everyone present, inspiring a new wave of entrepreneurial aspirations and endeavors.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the Entrepreneurship International Day Program was a grand success, thanks to the meticulous planning of the IQAC, the participation of esteemed dignitaries, and the invaluable insights provided by the guest speakers. This event served as a platform for networking, learning, and inspiration for both budding and established entrepreneurs. It contributed significantly to fostering a culture of entrepreneurship and innovation within the community.

The success of this event can be measured not just by the number of attendees but by the knowledge shared and connections formed, which will undoubtedly have a lasting impact on the entrepreneurial landscape of the region.