

YESHWANT MAHAVIDYALAYA, SELOO
REPORT ON ANTI-RAGGING WEEK CELEBRATION
(12th – 18th August 2025)

As per the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC), Anti-Ragging Day was observed on 12th August 2025, followed by Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August 2025 at Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo. The aim was to create awareness among students about the ill effects of ragging and to foster a safe, inclusive, and respectful campus environment. The college organized various events and activities throughout the week, which witnessed active participation and enthusiasm from students and faculty members.

1. Slogan Writing Activity

Students enthusiastically participated in a Slogan Writing Activity where they creatively expressed their thoughts against ragging through powerful and thought-provoking slogans. These slogans were also shared widely on social media platforms, including WhatsApp statuses, to raise awareness and reach a broader audience. The activity not only encouraged students to reflect on the impact of ragging but also helped in spreading the message of unity and kindness.

2. Poster Making Competition

A Poster Making Competition on the theme “Say No to Ragging” was organized to creatively engage students in the anti-ragging campaign.

- Total Participants: 9 students

Beautiful Posters with strong social messages were displayed in prominent areas of the campus, capturing the attention of staff, students, and visitors.

3. Social Media Campaigns

Students were encouraged to participate in online campaigns to raise awareness through digital means. Many students actively shared anti-ragging slogans, posters, and informative messages on WhatsApp, Instagram, and Facebook. This helped in taking the campaign beyond the college premises and involving the larger community in the initiative.

4. MCQ-Based Quiz Competition

An MCQ-based Quiz Competition on Anti-Ragging Awareness was conducted to test and improve students' understanding of the anti-ragging laws, UGC guidelines, and the psychological and social impact of ragging.

- Total Participants: 35 students

The quiz was well-received and appreciated for its informative and engaging format. Participation certificates were distributed to all attendees.

5. Debate Competition

A Debate on “Ragging and Its Impact on Student Life” was organized to encourage critical thinking and expression among students.

- Total Participants: 4 students

Participants confidently expressed their views on the issue, highlighting both psychological and legal implications of ragging. The debate concluded with a strong consensus that ragging should be eradicated through awareness and strict action.

6. Seminars and Talks by Experts

The highlights of the week was the seminar addressed by distinguished guest. A special seminar session was organized featuring eminent speaker from the law enforcement sector:

Adv. Vaishali Gajbhiye, Government Advocate, Diwani & Faujdari Nyayalay, Seloo, Dist. Wardha. She spoke about the legal consequences of ragging, role of police and judiciary and the importance of maintain dignity and respect in academic institutions.

The session focused on:

- Legal provisions and punishments related to ragging
- Students' rights and responsibilities
- Role of police and college authorities in ensuring a safe campus

The speaker inspired the students to become responsible citizens and to report any act of ragging without fear. Their real-life examples and encouraging words made a lasting impression on the attendees.

Outcome of the Programme

- Students were sensitized to the psychological, social and legal consequences or ragging.
- The activities helped in spreading awareness beyond the campus through social media campaigns.
- Students pledged to stand against ragging and to report any such incident immediately.
- The presence and guidance of distinguished guests left a strong impact, motivating students to maintain a ragging-free and safe academic environment.

Conclusion

The Anti-Ragging Week at Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo was a resounding success, achieving its goal of raising awareness and sensitizing students to the harmful effects of ragging. The diverse set of activities ensured participation from students across different streams and promoted a message of empathy, respect, and unity on campus.

The college reiterates its zero-tolerance policy towards ragging and remains committed to providing a safe and supportive learning environment for all students.

Date: 18th August 2025

Reported by:

The Anti-Ragging Committee

Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo

Principal

(Signature & Seal)
Officiating Principal
Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya
SELOO, Dist. Wardha