Held at Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo

Date: 20 November 2025 | Time: 10:00 a.m.

Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, through its Student Development Cell, conducted a special outreach programme titled “Vidyapith Aaplya Dari” under the Mahavidyalaya Sampark Abhiyan at Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo on 20 November 2025 at 10:00 a.m. to 12.00 p.m. The objective of this initiative was to create awareness among students regarding various university schemes, welfare programs, opportunities, and developmental initiatives.

The programme commenced with a warm welcome accorded to the distinguished guests and university representatives. The session was presided over by Dr. Sandip Kale, Principal, Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo, who extended his blessings and emphasized the importance of student development, career readiness, and strong university–college coordination.

The event was gracefully hosted by Mr. Arjun Khobragade, IQAC Coordinator, who efficiently conducted the proceedings.

Address by Dignitaries

Dr. Vijay Khandal, Director, Student Development Cell, RTM Nagpur University delivered an insightful introductory address highlighting the university's commitment to ensuring that every student is well-informed about various schemes, scholarships, earn and learn, skill-based programs, and avenues available for academic and personal growth. He elaborated on how initiatives like “Vidyapith Aaplya Dari” bridge the gap between the university and its affiliated colleges, bringing essential information directly to students.

As the Chief Guest, Shri Sunil Fudake, Senate Member, RTM Nagpur University inspired students with an encouraging speech focused on leadership, education, and opportunities for young learners. He emphasized the role of universities in shaping a knowledgeable and responsible youth force and urged students to actively participate in developmental programs run by the university.

Dr. Bhushan Mahajan, Training & Placement Cell, RTM Nagpur University addressed the gathering with an informative guidance session on career planning, skill development, and placement opportunities. He explained the importance of employability skills, internship programs, and how students can prepare themselves for competitive examinations and interviews.

Mrs. Roshani Khelkar, Senate Member, RTM Nagpur University provided valuable guidance to students regarding academic excellence, university welfare schemes, women-centric initiatives, and the role of student participation in shaping a progressive academic environment. Her session motivated many students to take advantage of the schemes offered by the university.

Presiding over the programme, Dr. Sandip Kale, Principal of the college, appreciated the Student Development Cell of RTM Nagpur University for selecting Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya as a part of this initiative. He expressed that such interactions enrich the academic ecosystem and help students make informed decisions about their future.

The programme concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr. Seema Deshmukh, Head, Department of Home Economics. She expressed gratitude to all the dignitaries, invitees, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and enthusiastic students for contributing to the success of the event.

The programme received overwhelming response and participation from both students and teaching staff. Their active involvement made the initiative meaningful and effective. The interactive sessions created awareness, cleared student queries, and strengthened the bond between the college and the university.

The “Vidyapith Aaplya Dari – Mahavidyalaya Sampark Abhiyan” at Yeshwant Mahavidyalaya, Seloo, proved to be a highly informative and motivating event. It successfully achieved its mission of disseminating university-related information and enabling students to benefit from various schemes and opportunities. The event concluded with renewed enthusiasm and a positive outlook toward student development and institutional collaboration.
